SECTION "A"

OPEN DELEGATION BY BRYAN FLANNERY REGARDING PLANNED IMPLEMENTATION OF NO PARKING SIGNS ON GREER STREET

Bryan Flannery, 63 Greer Street, provided an open delegation regarding the planned implementation of no parking signs on Greer Street. Mr. Flannery addressed concerns related to the impact this change will have on residents, particularly given the high density nature of the street and the limited alternative parking options available.

The Community Safety Committee met and recommends adoption of the following recommendation(s):

SECTION "B"

PLANNED IMPLEMENTATION OF NO PARKING SIGNS ON GREER STREET

That notwithstanding by-law 2020-107 the matter of no parking on Greer Street be referred to the Parking Ad-Hoc Advisory Committee and that installation of bike lanes and enforcement of no parking on Greer Street not commence until the Parking Ad-Hoc Advisory Committee has made a recommendation on this matter.

This matter was recommend (Section "B") to General Committee for consideration of adoption at its meeting to be held on 5/28/2025.

SECTION "C"
